Grand Rounds
September 2014 | 7:00—8:00 am
Kontos Medical Sciences Building Auditorium
Virginia Commonwealth University- MCV Campus

September 4
Journal Club
Giao Phan, MD- Associate Professor, Division of Surgical Oncology, VCUHS

September 11
“Surgery for Esophageal Cancer”
Rachit D. Shah, MD- Assistant Professor of Surgery, Division of Cardiothoracic Surgery, VCUHS
At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:
1) Epidemiology and staging
2) Role of multi-modality therapy
3) Role of surgery and types of esophageal resections
4) VCU experience- Minimally Invasive Esophagectomy (MIE)

September 18
“Acute Care Surgery - A New Paradigm”
Mike Aboutanos, MD- Professor & Chair, Division of Acute Care Surgical Services, VCUHS
At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:
1) Describe the national transition of the practice of trauma to acute care surgery.
2) Describe the current acute care surgery structure at VCU.
3) Elaborate on the significance of acute care surgery for the Department of Surgery.

September 25
“Changing The World One Limited Echo At The Time”
Paula Ferrada, MD- Assistant Professor of Surgery, Division of Acute Care Surgical Services, VCUHS
At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:
1) Understand fluid the utility of limited echocardiogram in guiding therapy for the hypotensive patient
2) Identify international opportunities for collaboration
3) Identify opportunities for training and teaching ultrasound
4) Recognize VCU as a leading institution for teaching surgeon performed ultrasound world wide